

Island Rec Internet User Agreement

When engaging in any online interactions or use of any electronic device during TREC activities, be it viewing, downloading, updating, sharing or forwarding,

I _____ will always abide by these rules.

- I will not befriend people with whom I have not met in real life.
- I will not bully, slander, or say anything unkind toward anyone for any reason and will not copy or forward on any such messages written by anyone else.
- I will not post videos or pictures of anyone else.
- I will not give away personal information such as my birthday, address or phone number.
- I will not use a credit card for any purpose.
- I will not engage in online conversations with people I have not met in real life.
- I will always get my parent's permission before signing up for anything on the internet.
- I will not download music, games or software.
- I will never order anything online (even if it is free).
- I will never use inappropriate language online.
- When pop-up banner ads come up I will not click on them other than to close with the x button.
- When interacting with others online, I am aware that:
  - People are not always who they say they are
  - People do not always tell the truth
  - There is no such thing as privacy online
  - Screen shots can be taken on Snap Chat

If I do not abide by these rules Island Rec staff will block me from using technology at TREC and may remove me from the TREC program.
